2085 AD-The Great Sterility Pandemic has reduced humanity to 500 million worldwide. Age demographics are upside down in the pyramid with the aged in the majority, a dwindling population of able bodied adults, and babies all but unheard of. A society that thrived on growth and innovation is reduced to salvage and barter. The federal government struggles to hold together the once great nation now known as the Consolidated State of America. There is one last chance to stave off extinction, a risky one. But the greater issue is-does H. sapiens sapiens deserve it?
